Give Me a Reason

Turn out the light - don't see me worry
I never wanted to decide
But we both know this endless story
We've seen it all the black and white

Tell me what is to come that I should be waiting
Yes, what is to come that I should stay
Now is the time - I am awakened
Now is the time I'm letting go

Give me a reason
Give me the power to survive
Make me believing
Everything will be alright
Just give me a reason
I try to hold my head up high
Although I'm feeling
This story will never turn out fine

Turn out the light - don't see me worry
I never wanted to decide
But we both know this endless story
We've seen it all the black and white

If there's something to say - don't keep me waiting
If there's something to say - please let me know
Now is the time - I am awakened
Now is the time I'm letting go

Give me a reason
Give me the power to survive
Make me believing
Everything will be alright
Just give me a reason
I try to hold my head up high
Although I'm feeling
This story will never turn out fine

Velvet Heart

Inside I feel so desperate now
I still believe we should go on Giving me a chance to talk things out
I must admit that I was wrong

We walk on thousand different lines
You crossed them all - left me behind
And now I don't know where to start
But though it may be hard I'm writing down this letter to you

It may begin with an answer to the question you never had
This is the time, to forgive and to forget
So if you can take advantage of the memories that we have
It's so lonely without you velvet heart

Don't try to tell me it's alright
'Cause nothing seems alright to me
Does the truth look so different in your eyes
I still regret this can't you see

We follow our different lines
You crossed me out - left me behind
And now I don't know where to start
But though it may be hard I'm writing down this letter to you

It may begin with an answer to the question you never had
This is the time, to forgive and to forget
So if you can take advantage of the memories that we have
It's so lonely without you velvet heart

Bist du bereit?!

Standhaft sein
Reih Dich ein
Kümmer Dich nicht
Steh für Dich ein
Augen auf, es gibt nichts zu sehn
Chancenlos werden wir weitergehen
Ich schau mich um, und ich fühle
Wie sehr es mich bewegt
Wenn die Welt, die ich so liebe
Ihre Werte untergräbt und untergeht

Bist Du bereit alles zu riskieren
Es ist soweit, wir haben nichts mehr zu verlieren
Uns sind die Hände gebunden, doch wir halten nicht still Haben vieles erduldet, doch jetzt ist es zu viel
Ich bin bereit - es gibt doch nichts mehr zu verlieren

I Count on You

For all my life I followed ideals
I could not reach them but I tried
And at the end of my existence
Will I say I did it right?

If you have faith, if you're believing
That true love will never die
Then just go on, make your decisions
I am sure you're doing fine
I count on you...

I count on you
Don't let me down
When things may look so bad
Come rescue me
I start to drown
I'd be safer in your hands

And all these words they made me wonder
It's the turning of the tide
I am here to make a promise
I will stand the test of time

I have no doubt that you are the right one
I have no doubt we can survive
So just go on make your decisions
I am sure you're doing fine
I count on you...

I count on you
Don't let me down
When things may look so bad
Come rescue me
I start to drown
I'd be safer in your hands

And when there's a time
When everything seems to fall apart
It won't bring us down
'Cause we can rely
On each other
That's something I know by now

I count on you
Don't let me down
When things may look so bad
Come rescue me
I start to drown
I'd be safer in your hands

Spark (Discofashion mix)

You went away and you didn't look back
I never wanted this to happen
I never thought that I could be
So harmful and so cold

But after all you have to believe
I never ever ment to hurt you so
And if sometimes you are thinking of me
Please call and let me know

Picture me in the dark
I'm watching a spark
It's lighting a fire for you
Somewhere here is your place
And I'm counting the days
Till I see you again

I Come Undone

Would you believe me
If there was something I could do
If I could fill the emptiness inside you
And make your hardest wish come true

Within my heart there lies the answer
With every beat it's tearing up your sky
And every breath I take will dry all your tears
You will never have to wonder why

I want to share my world with you
I come undone
I want to make your dreams come true
I see you walking in the sun
I want to share my world with you
I come undone
I'm letting all your dreams come true

Would you believe me
If there was something I could do
If I could make you stay for all the living
I'll never turn my back on you

'Cause in my heart there burns a fire
With every spark it's lighting up your sky
And when we touch I feel this deep devotion
You will never have to ask me why

I want to share my world with you
I come undone
I want to make your dreams come true
I see you walking in the sun
I want to share my world with you
I come undone
I'm letting all your dreams come true

Spürst du's nicht?!

Wir hatten uns Treue geschworen
Und für einander da zu sein
Doch im Laufe der Zeit gehen Gefühle verloren
Ich hoffe Du wirst mir verzeihen

Sieh mir ins Gesicht, sag mir spürst Du nicht
Dass es so nicht weitergehen kann
Dort wo wir jetzt stehen ist das Ende unseres Wegs
Doch ich reich Dir meine Hand
Auch wenn wir uns verlieren, es kommen andere die uns führen
Wir sind niemals ganz allein
Sieh mir ins Gesicht, sag mir spürst Du es nicht
Oh spürst Du es nicht...

Ich kann diese Last nicht mehr tragen
Sag fühlst Du nicht genau wie ich
Uns wird jetzt nichts mehr vor dem Absturz bewahren
Weil alles längst entschieden ist

Sieh mir ins Gesicht, sag mir spürst Du nicht
Dass es so nicht weitergehen kann
Dort wo wir jetzt stehen ist das Ende unseres Wegs
Doch ich reich Dir meine Hand
Auch wenn wir uns verlieren, es kommen andere die uns führen
Wir sind niemals ganz allein
Sieh mir ins Gesicht, sag mir spürst Du es nicht
Oh spürst Du es nicht...

Denn jetzt seh ich Dich an und fühle nichts in mir
Kein Wort kein Ort führt mich zurück zu Dir
Und wenn Du mich fragst sind wir dem Ende nah
Der Weg ins Nichts er endet genau hier

Sieh mir ins Gesicht, sag mir spürst Du nicht
Dass es so nicht weitergehen kann
Dort wo wir jetzt stehen ist das Ende unseres Wegs
Doch ich reich Dir meine Hand
Auch wenn wir uns verlieren, es kommen andere die uns führen
Wir sind niemals ganz allein
Sieh mir ins Gesicht, sag mir spürst Du es nicht
Oh spürst Du es nicht...

Like Heaven

I'm keeping my head
But emotions paralyze my little soul
It's so hard to say but I'm not the same
Since the moment I saw you

And I can't tell you how
You make me feel when you're standing by my side
Everything I want is so close at hand
But I know you still need time

Don't surrender to me now
It's alright it feels like heaven
Like heaven, when you are coming around
This tension in the air

Don't surrender to me now
It's alright it feels like heaven
Like heaven, when you are coming around
And stay a little while

I'm keeping my head
But emotions paralyze my little soul
It's so hard to say but I'm not the same
Since the moment I saw you

You turn me inside out
And you rule my world from the oceans to the skies
Everything I want is to be with you
But I know you still need time

Don't surrender to me now
It's alright it feels like heaven
Like heaven, when you are coming around
This tension in the air

Don't surrender to me now
It's alright it feels like heaven
Like heaven, when you are coming around
And stay a little while

And I say
It is alright
So let's just stay awake all night
I watch the moonlight in your eyes
And I say...

Don't surrender to me now
It's alright it feels like heaven
Like heaven, when you are coming around
This tension in the air

Don't surrender to me now
It's alright it feels like heaven

Like heaven, when you are coming around
And stay a little while

Addicted to the Masses

Without a target or a destination
You sell your soul to those who know your needs
You play your role as good as you can
You need attention endlessly

As a cover of a magazine
You look fantastic that's all you mean
You tell your stories to those who think
That you are someone special but I know you ain't!

I could read your lines
Words just written for the ashes
I could see your lies
I will watch them fall apart
I could feel your life
Is addicted to the masses
I could see your lies
And I will watch them fall apart

Do you believe you could have ever made it
Without the help of any industries
It may be hard but you will have to face it
You are just a fool with no identity

As a cover of a magazine
You look fantastic that's all you mean
You tell your stories to those who think
That you are someone special but I know you ain't!

I could read your lines
Words just written for the ashes
I could see your lies
I will watch them fall apart
I could feel your life
Is addicted to the masses
I could see your lies
And I will watch them fall apart

Victory of the Heart

Do you feel we crossed the line
Our destiny is so unsure
We are wasting our time
Instead of reaching out for something pure

And I feel so bitter
When I think that all the years have gone by
Without a single moment
With you here by my side

Let's put our heart and soul together
We can make it if we never say never
Let's make a promise that we always believe in
The victory of the heart
Let's put our heart and soul together
We're gonna stay like this forever
I keep my promise and I always believe in
The victory of the heart

I know it's hard to keep the faith
While this society still pulls you down
But if we start to hesitate
We may never get this chance again

And I feel so bitter
When I think that all the years have gone by
Without a single moment
With you here by my side

Let's put our heart and soul together
We can make it if we never say never
Let's make a promise that we always believe in
The victory of the heart
Let's put our heart and soul together
We're gonna stay like this forever
I keep my promise and I always believe in
The victory of the heart
