Sadness

You emerged from me
Born down by the sea
I know the games you play
A mine of pure decay
I know you, I know you well,
I know you I know you. I know you well,
I know you
I can feel your sadness
I can feel your sadness
You're on your own

When the World Disappeared

Like a tree bare of leaves
Down on my knees
Unwilling to please
Wrong side of the track
Stabbed in the back
Just mending the cracks
Then you came down my way
And all the things you'd say were amazing

And the world disappeared
All the clouds and the rain
I could hardly explain how I felt
When the world disappeared
And eternal spring was growing within

Go, give me a thrill
Dress up to kill
I'm tied to your will dig
Find the unfound
Nailed to the ground
I don't hear a sound
Absence of the mind
Potential suicide
Out of time now

When the world disappeared
Flowers perfumed the air
You make me so aware of me
When the world disappeared
All my sorrow and pain
'Cause the world couldn't tame her
When the world disappeared
As you whisper my name
Pouring oil on the flame I feel
When the world disappeared
I confess all my sin
While you're letting God in

Miss You More

Will I be here endlessly
Without a firm sense of identity
In a world that left me cold and empty
In a world that left me cold and empty
I'm about to lose my hold
Come alive and take me far
So alive come take me far and near
'Cause the world will leave you cold and empty
'Cause the world will leave you cold and empty
I'm about to lose control

Won't you come alive
And take me down your trail
Hold me close before it's too late
Come alive and lead me all the way
(I miss you more than home)
Hold me close before it's too late

When your colors start to fade
All your colors fade away I pray
That your love
Won't keep me cold and empty
That your love
Won't leave me cold and empty
I'm about to lose my hold

Drifting Sideways

Fed my eyes on you girl
Dived deep into your world
Watched my life go down the drain
I drew upon myself
For too long now
Feels like I'm not your saviour anymore

Will I float here forever and a day
Drifting sideways
In a world I'll never understand
Will I float here forever and a day
Drifting sideways
I'm dying here like always

Walked the line for you girl
Almost drowned in your realm
Watched myself wasting away
You've been a drag on me for much too long
Feels like I'm not your saviour anymore

A New Dawn

Lightly come, lightly go
Sick of your idealized home
I'm only pain
Not good for you
Don't follow me for
I'm lost too

Another day, another way
Once again I brave the world
In the light of things to come
It takes more to turn me on

And when the day is dawning
I leave it all behind
And when your world is calling

With a crying eye

And when the day is dawning
I leave it all behind (with a crying eye)
And when your world is calling

And when the day is dawning
And everything you're falling for

Far Too Deep

Angel
Hold my hand for a while
On a rainy day
Lift me high to the sky

Angel
It's all in your mind
The world's ever pulsating life
The world that you can't leave behind

Lady, you go far too deep
That's by far too deep

Angel
Hold my life for a while
On a winter day
We might run to the sun
Angel
It's all in your head
The light's gone out
The world is dead
A stranger dwelling in my bed

Lady, you go for too deep
This is far too deep
You go far too deep

All the days useless spent
All the nights that know no end
All this pain we tasted of
We can never get enough
Our convictions divide
Our hopes and doubts unite
Don't let go just hold on
I know we can't go wrong

Digital Dream

Put some soul in my machine
Put some soul in my machine
Machines do not dream
Feed your dreams in my machine
Feed your dreams in my machine
Dirty and obscene

Unwrap all your beauty and love
Unwrap all your beauty and love

Put some life in my machine
Put some life in my machine
Machines do not feel
Fill the world in my machine
Fill the world in my machine
Tried to keep it clean

You Say...

In love with the idea of love
Rend the silence draw some blood for me
Evoke this memory
Retrieve me from oblivion
Break away from all your idle dreams
Life's never what it seems

You say, you say, you say, you say, you say,
You say, you say, you say, you say, you say,
I know that all there is is pain
And all the lover's love in vain, we do
You know we do

I'm dwelling where the sun don't shine
Devoured by all-consuming hole
Where once there was a soul
I'm bound inside an empty house
Where love is just a distant melody
No place for you and me

Mary Jane

Chain me
Confiscate me
Change me
Rearrange me

She's the light of my eye

Tame me (I'm addicted to you)
Domesticate me (I will always love you)
Drain me (so addicted to you)
Suffocate me

Mary chain me to you
Mary Jane pull me through

The Day's Not Done

No one left to fight for
No one here to hit me in the face
Don't let it go away
No one left to cry for
Who is gonna kick you when I'm gone
Don't make it go away

I know that the day will come
I know we will be as one
I can see the day is not yet done I'm holding on
I know we will be as one
I feel that a new life has begun
I'm holding on

No one left to die for
No one there to catch you while I fall
Don't make me... just go away
